

February 2, 1983

that we passed over but we will continue on. We will have some more and then at ten-thirty we will go to the branch banking, multibank holding bill at ten-thirty in hopes that we get something done one way or the other by noon tomorrow. If we should quickly get that accomplished we will continue back on General File where we leave off at ten-thirty. So thanks again for your cooperation. You have been great this morning. Incidentally, you should probably remind your spouses that that meeting this afternoon has been cancelled so that they will not be attempting to get there.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Labedz, do you want to adjourn us until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Yes, Mr. President, reluctantly, because of the LB 50, I move that we adjourn until Thursday morning, February 3rd, nine o'clock.

SENATOR CLARK: You all heard the motion. All in favor say aye, nine o'clock tomorrow morning. Any opposition? We are adjourned until tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.

Edited by LaVera M. Benischek
LaVera M. Benischek